

Craig Gautreaux is married and has one child. He resides in Iberia Parish.

For the past twenty-three (23) years he has worked for Lafayette Consolidated Government in Lafayette, La. His current position is the Water/Wastewater Operations Manager.

Education includes a Master of Science in Civil Engineering Degree from University of Louisiana.

Professional memberships include American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), Louisiana Engineering Society (LES), Water Environmental Federation (WEF) and American Water Works Association (AWWA) as well as the Louisiana Water Environmental Association (LWEA), Louisiana Conference on Water Supply, Sewerage and Industrial Waste (La. Conference), Southwest Section of La. Conference, Louisiana Rural Water Association and others.

In 2012 he was awarded the William D. Hatfield Award from the WEF for outstanding performance and professionalism in the operation of a wastewater treatment facility.

He has all Class IV certifications in Water, Wastewater and Solid Waste and holds the La. Engineering In Training license.

He has served at the request of the La. Conference on the Committee of Certification for 12 years and has been the Chairman for six years. His current term expires in August 2012.